++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Cloudy and mild overnight with winds strengthening into Saturday.

This Evening and Tonight:
Staying rather cloudy overnight with only the isolated clear spell. A few spots of rain and drizzle at times, most notably along coasts and over higher ground. Feeling much milder than recent nights and becoming breezier in the early hours. Minimum temperature 8 deg C (46 deg F).

Saturday:
Winds continuing to strengthen, with coastal gales possible. Rain, heavy at times, arrives later in the morning. Drying up in the late afternoon with skies clearing, though remaining windy. Maximum temperature 13 deg C (55 deg F).

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
Cooler on Sunday but largely dry with bright spells and staying windy. Cloudier on Monday with patchy rain later. Rain perhaps developing more widely on Tuesday as it turns milder.
